

Back to Renan, Schweitzer, and Bultmann, or Putting Historical Jesus Research into Historical Perspective

Dr. Pierluigi Piovanelli
Professor, University of Ottawa

Thursday, February 6, 2014 at 6:00 p.m.
1590 Dr. Penfield, Atrium

Dr. Pierluigi Piovanelli, Professor in the Department of Classics and Religious Studies, University of Ottawa is a world-renowned expert on Jewish and Christian apocryphal literature and the Historical Jesus. Dr. Piovanelli will explore the questions and ideas which gave rise to Jesus-of-History research through the work of three intellectual giants from the 19th and 20th century: Ernest Renan, Albert Schweitzer, and Rudolf Bultmann

religion.concordia.ca/